

The General Conference elected the following seven Members to the Board of Governors to hold office until the end of the seventeenth regular session in 1973:

Colombia	for Latin America;
Romania	for Eastern Europe;
The Arab Republic of Egypt and the Democratic Republic of the Congo	for Africa and the Middle East;
Ceylon	for South Asia;
China	for the Far East; and
Greece	to fill the remaining elective place.

27 September 1971
Agenda item 12
GC(XV)/OR. 150, paras 3-21